WHAT WE'RE DOING TO HELP

In 2018/19, our Speak out. Stay safe. volunteers and staff in Oxfordshire visited 61 schools and spoke to 14,544 children

Helping children speak out and stay safe

With your help, over the next 3 years we can visit all 286 schools in Oxfordshire.

On average, a child somewhere in the UK contacts Childline every 25 seconds

Giving children a voice

In 2018/19 our Childline volunteers delivered over 250,000 counselling sessions to children and young people.

We estimate around 2,600 of those children lived in Oxfordshire.

We're working with O2 to keep children safe online, via our Net Aware tool and online safety advice helpline.

Supporting the community to change childhoods

Our resources and guidance help coaches, sports clubs and community groups in Oxfordshire to keep children safe.

In Oxfordshire we worked with the community to help more parents talk PANTS and keep children safe.

161 calls and emails to our helpline asking for advice about keeping children safe in Oxfordshire last year.

Taking action to protect children

474 referrals were made from the helpline to local agencies such as the police and children's services.

Helping children recover from abuse and working with families to prevent abuse.

Services like Letting the Future In help children rebuild their lives.

Face-to-face support

We are gathering evidence and sharing the learning from our work with children and families so that other organisations can help more children in communities like yours.

We can only keep doing all this with your support.
